AB 3246 - Assembly Members – Frazier, Fong, Berman, Chu, Daly, Harper, Mathis, Nazarian and O'Donnell – (Committee on Transportation) – Omnibus Bill

SEC. 3.

Section 21660 of the California Public Utilities Code is repealed.

SEC. 4.

Section 21670.1 of the California Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

(a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this article, if the board of supervisors and the city selection committee of mayors in the county each makes a determination by a majority vote that proper land use planning can be accomplished through the actions of an appropriately designated body, then the body so designated shall assume the planning responsibilities of an airport land use commission, and a commission need not be formed in that county.

(b) A body designated pursuant to subdivision (a) that does not include among its membership at least two members having expertise in aviation, as defined in subdivision (e) of Section 21670, shall, when acting in the capacity of an airport land use commission, be augmented so that body, as augmented, will have at least two members having that expertise. The commission shall be constituted pursuant to this section on and after March 1, 1988.

(c) (1) If the board of supervisors of a county and each affected city in that county each makes a determination that proper land use can be accomplished, then a commission need not be formed in that county.

(2) If a commission is not formed pursuant to paragraph (1), that county and the appropriate affected cities having jurisdiction over an airport, subject to the review and approval by the Division of Aeronautics of the department, shall do all of the existing requirements for land use planning, as described in the California Public Utilities Code.

Status – May 10th – In Senate. Read first time. To Committee on Rules for assignment; May 24th – Referred to Committee on Transportation and Housing.

SB 21 - Senator Jerry Hill, District 13 – (Government Code): Law Enforcement Surveillance policies

This bill would, beginning July 1, 2018, except in exigent circumstances, as defined, require a public agency to submit a proposed plan for the use of each type of new surveillance technology and the information collected, as specified. The bill would authorize an agency to temporarily use surveillance technology in exigent circumstances without meeting the requirements of these provisions, provided that the agency submits a specified report to its governing body within 90 days of the end of the exigent circumstances or a later period as extended. Surveillance Technology as described in this bill includes “drones,” a common term used for Unmanned Aircraft System (UAS).

This policy shall contain: the authorized purposes for using the technology; the type of data that can be collected; the job title of the employees and independent contractors authorized to use the technology and access the data; the type of training required to use the technology; the title of the official custodian of the technology; a description of how the technology will be monitored to ensure the security of information and compliance with applicable privacy laws; the length of time information gathered by the surveillance technology will be retained, and a process to determine if and when to destroy retained information; purpose of, process for and restrictions on the sale, sharing, or transfer of information to other persons and whether and, if so, how the collected information can be accessed by members of the public, including criminal defendants.

This bill would make legislative findings in support of these provisions.

Status – September 1st 2017 - hearing: Held in committee and under submission.

 Held under submission - an action taken, when a bill is heard in committee, to allow either the committee members or the author to work on the bill, or continue discussion. Under this procedure there is no motion for the bill to progress out of the committee. If someone wants to get the bill moving again they could set another hearing. It is a maneuver to control a bill of interest, either to stall the bill, improve it, or hold it until other related bills have passed.*
